

U3A NEWSLETTER

There will be no newsletter in August so the next issue will be September 26th. The deadline for this issue is September 9th. Please email janetb.bradshaw6@gmail.com or phone 01257 261134.

To keep you thinking during the summer break, here is a poser.

The following is an ANAGRAM of a famous QUOTATION.

'In one of the Bard's best-thought-of tragedies, our insistent hero Hamlet, queries on two fronts about how life turns rotten'.

All the clues are in the anagram - Answer in the September issue.

SENIOR MOMENT

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house and after the meal, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. One husband said to the other "Last night we went to a new restaurant and it was very good. I can highly recommend it. The other man said "What is the name of the restaurant?" The first man says "Mmm... What's the name of that red flower you give someone you love?" His friend says "A carnation?" "No, the other one"

"A poppy?"

"No, the one that has thorns"

"Do you mean a rose?"

"Yes, yes, that's the one".

Then he turns towards the kitchen and yells "Rose, What's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?".
